V1 I see Lucy Ball Show
Kojak's lollipop
I see the rain is falling in South America
And two men draw in a Texan town
And one prizefighter knocks the other one down

V2 The weatherman smiles
While a hungry child is kissing a king And The Osmonds sing
Someone's bending a spoon
Someone's walking on the moon
Someone's robbing a bank
Someone's blowing a bomb on

V3 Through the silent universe all over the world Pictures in the sky, Words are flying by
The waves change our time
Sail into our minds
Still there's so many things
That we'll never see on

S1 She's had too much whisky

You can see the traces in her middle-aged face
 And though she's only forty-two

She thinks she's got nothing else to do

S2 Than to let her evenings pass away
 While her husband falls asleep
 In front of the late Late late movies
 She's watching the late late late midnight movies
 Watching the late late late movies
 The late late late midnight movies
 The late late late midnight movies on
